

Program Introduction

7527 Roswell Rd, NE #566-414 Atlanta, GA 31156

Please Donate Today | contact@exhouse.org

The Effort

Greetings dear brothers and sisters, we are X. A personal improvement and housing program for persons released from prison and jail. Our future operations will offer housing, education, and mental health counseling. We are reaching out to potential clients to gather data, determine preferences, and announce our intended future operations. Ask family and friends to visit our website to see how they can work to strengthen our neighborhoods. (please fill out and mail our student survey or fill one out online)

Current Operations

We are currently collecting data and conducting research to strengthen our services and programs. (Our 501c3 application is in process)

Current Programs

Inside: Brothers and sisters on the inside are invited to submit articles to our website exhouse.org.

Submission Rules

- Select Topics: Gun violence, homelessness, public education, domestic violence, avoiding addiction, HIV, intergenerational crime, poverty, racism, leaving a gang/street organization, re-entry, and other topics upon approval.
- 500 word limit.
- All submissions must originate from a state, county or federal institution.
- Prohibited Topics: Any mention or inference to a specific bill, law, ordinance, agency, institution, politician, political position, political policy, or prison/jail institution is prohibited. All case descriptions are prohibited. Any mention of a current or past arrest or conviction is prohibited. Any mention or inference to a specific charge that occurred while detained or incarcerated is prohibited.
- The more qualified surveys that sponsor the post, the longer it will remain on the website. So ask friends, inside and outside, to submit surveys and list your post number.
- The following release statement must be added to all submissions, signed and dated
 - I hereby irrevocably authorize X and exhouse.org to edit, alter, copy, exhibit, publish or distribute this article for use on the exhouse.org website or for any other lawful purpose. In addition, I waive the right to inspect or approve the finished product. Additionally, I waive any right to royalties or other compensation arising or related to the use of the article. I hereby release and hold harmless X and exhouse.org from any reasonable expectation of privacy or confidentiality. I understand and agree that all materials will become the property of X and exhouse.org and will not be returned. I certify that I am over 18 years of age and am competent to contract in my own name. I fully understand the contents, meaning, and impact of this release.

Future Operations

Housing | Education | Mental Health | Public Enlightenment

Planned Locations

Atlanta

Housing Basic Details (future programming)

Costs will vary and are based on HUD Very Low-Income limits

Length of Stay (Limit/Goal): +/- 36 Months

Eligibility

- Past or anticipated release from state prison, federal prison, county jail, or at-risk of participating in unlawful acts
- Men, women and emancipated juveniles

Excluding

- Convicted Sex Offender
- Substance abuse detoxification
- Severe mental and/or physical disabilities

Opportunities to Volunteer

- We all have power
- The power of influence
- The power to self heal
- You still have power even now
- ... The power of your voice
- You can make a difference by asking others to get involved
- Spread the news about this program
- Speak to friends & family
- Ask them to visit the website and fill out our surveys

- Pledge your support by using one stamp a month for five straight months
- Send a short note to your federal, state, county, and city official; ask them to personally endorse the program or to meet with an X representative
- Every citizen has a good reason to endorse housing for persons with criminal records
- The benefit to community is clear
- The benefit to families is clear
- The reason it's not done more often is part of the problem

Please Donate Today
Housing | Education | Mental Health | Public Enlightenment
exhouse.org exhouse.org exhouse.org
the neglected. the marginalized. the excluded. exhouse.org